JOINT STATUS REPORT OF
PLAINTIFF AND CERTAIN DEFENDANTS¹

Pursuant to the Order of this Court dated July 3, 2008, Plaintiff Gary Gullickson (“Plaintiff”) and Defendants Village Discount Outlet, Inc.; James B. Stinnett; Plaza Marketing Associates; William Ryan; and Reginald Wright (collectively, “Defendants”) submit this Joint Status Report:

1. Nature of the Case

A. The attorneys of record for each party are as follows:

For Plaintiff Gary Gullickson

Charles Siedlecki
Charles Siedlecki and Associates, P.C.
10540 South Western Avenue – Suite 405

¹ Neither defendants Leonard Baumgartner (who has not yet appeared in the case, although he did return an executed waiver of service of summons form according to plaintiff’s counsel) nor Mayo Incorporated (who just recently filed the appearance of counsel) participated in the preparation of this joint status report. Accordingly, the term “Parties,” as used herein, shall refer only to those parties that have signed this joint status report.

B. The Complaint alleges that this Court has subject matter jurisdiction over this action pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1331 (federal question), § 1332(a)(1) (diversity of citizenship), § 1343 (civil rights), and § 1367(c)(3) (supplemental jurisdiction). At this time, Defendants do not agree that this Court has jurisdiction as alleged in the Complaint.

C. The Complaint purports to allege the five claims: (1) Retaliatory Discharge, pursuant to 42 U.S.C. § 1981; (2) Conspiracy, pursuant to 42 U.S.C. § 1985(3); (3) Illinois Common Law Retaliatory Discharge; (4) Illinois Common Law Conspiracy; and (5) Breach of Contract.

At this time, Defendants do not concede that the Complaint states any viable claim for relief.

Because Defendants' responsive pleadings are not due until September 5, 2008, no counterclaims have yet been filed.²

D. The Defendants only recently received copies of the summons and Complaint (through waiver of service) and their responsive pleadings to the Complaint are due on September 5, 2008. Accordingly, the Parties believe it is premature to attempt to identify the major legal and factual issues anticipated in this case. However, the Parties believe the legal and factual issues in the case may include the following: (1) whether the Complaint states a viable claim for relief; (2) whether the Plaintiff has suffered any damages; (3) whether the Plaintiff was an employee of any of the defendants; (4) whether the Plaintiff was properly terminated; (5) whether the Plaintiff stole or attempted to steal from any of the defendants; (6) whether Plaintiff owed fiduciary duties to any of the defendants; (7) whether Plaintiff breached any fiduciary or other duties he owed to any of the defendants; (8) whether Plaintiff tortiously interfered with any contract or business expectancy of any of the defendants; and (9) whether Plaintiff filed a false pleading.

E. Plaintiff seeks monetary relief in the form of back-pay, front-pay, compensatory and punitive damages, reasonable attorney's fees, interest, and costs. Defendants do not believe the Plaintiff is entitled to any relief.

2. Pending Motions and Case Plan

A. The Parties to this joint status report have not filed any motions, although Defendants may file motions to dismiss, for summary judgment, and/or for sanctions.

B. The Parties propose the following discovery plan:

² Defendants responsive pleading to the Complaint is not due to be filed until September 5, 2008. By filing this joint status report, defendants do not waive, and expressly reserve, any and all arguments supporting dismissal of the Complaint.

1. The Parties expect to engage in written fact discovery (including interrogatories, requests to produce, and requests to admit) and oral fact discovery, as well as expert witness discovery.

2. Rule 26(a) disclosures to be made 14 days after all defendants have filed their respective Answers to the Complaint.

3. Close of all fact discovery on June 5, 2009

4. Close of expert discovery on October 5, 2009

- Plaintiff to disclose and deliver report(s) of expert(s) by July 7, 2009.
- Plaintiff's expert(s) to be deposed by August 7, 2009.
- Defendants to disclose and deliver report(s) of expert(s) by September 7, 2009.
- Defendants expert(s) to be deposed by October 7, 2009.

5 All dispositive motions to be filed no later than 60 days after the close of fact discovery.

6. Final pretrial order shall be filed by January 9, 2010.

C. With respect to trial:

1. Plaintiff has requested trial by jury.

2. The Parties anticipate a trial may last 10 court days.

3. The Parties anticipate the case may be ready for trial in January 2010.

3. Consent to Proceed Before a Magistrate Judge

At this time, the Parties do not consent to proceed before a magistrate judge.

4. Status of Settlement Discussions

- A. No settlement discussions have occurred.
- B. Plaintiff requests a settlement conference. Defendants do not believe a settlement conference would be productive.
